

TL2 ENGLISH PROGRAMS: UNDERSTANDING YOUR PAYMENT AND REFUND OPTIONS

TL2 ENGLISH PROGRAM TUITION AND FEES

inlingua provides instruction and charges tuition for its TL2 English programs (English Experience/Experience Plus, Business Experience/Advantage and Summer English Escape/Adventure) by the week. When you enroll in the English Experience/Experience Plus or Business Experience/Advantage programs, you may select to study from one (1) to fifty-two (52) weeks. Due to the length and structure of these programs, you may not enroll for less than one (1) week or more than fifty-two (52) weeks at a time. When you enroll in the Summer English Escape/Adventure, you may select to study from one (1) to thirteen (13) weeks. Due to the length and structure of this program, you may not enroll for less than one (1) week or more than thirteen (13) weeks.

PAYMENT OPTIONS

All students have the option of paying their tuition in full at the time of application or paying as they go (this means paying one month at a time). Students who select to pay as they go must make the first tuition payment by no later than 30 days before their start date (or at the time of application, if their start date is within 30 days of the time of application). The first payment must include the total number of weeks within the first month of study (between one and five weeks, depending on the start date). After commencement, all monthly payments are due on the first Monday of the month for each subsequent month or portion of a month remaining on the enrollment.

inlingua recommends that students select the payment option that best meets their personal and financial needs. If you are not sure whether you will leave the program before your scheduled end date, it may be better for you to pay as you go, since you will not risk losing any prepaid tuition, in the event that you do not qualify for a refund. However, if you are fairly certain that you will not leave the program early, then you may benefit from paying in full since you will receive a discounted tuition price.

inlingua does not provide refunds for non-refundable fees, except as noted below. Whether you are entitled to a refund of unused prepaid tuition depends on your circumstances (please see the program's terms and conditions for full details). Students are only entitled to a refund of prepaid tuition if one of the following apply:

1. You cancel your enrollment within the first three (3) calendar days of signing the inlingua enrollment form.
2. You submit a written request to cancel your enrollment after the first (3) calendar days of signing the inlingua enrollment form but before the first scheduled day of class. In this case, you will receive a refund of prepaid tuition minus the equivalent cost of tuition for one (1) academic quarter.
3. inlingua denies you admission into the program (in this event, all prepaid tuition and fees, including non-refundable fees, will be refunded).
4. You are an initial attendance student applying from abroad and your F-1 visa application is denied by the United States embassy or consulate.
5. You have applied from within the United States and your application to change nonimmigrant (visa) status is denied by the United States government.
6. You have enrolled for a longer period (total number of months) than you need to complete the program. This usually only happens if you enter the program at the highest level and have prepaid for more than three months of tuition. If this happens, you will receive a full refund of all prepaid tuition for the months you will be unable to use.
