Sample themes include beginning and ending calls, repetition and clarification, expressing feelings and reactions, calling new contacts, overcoming barriers, and taking part in conference calls. This module is available in both a basic and an advanced format.

Learner Outcomes

After completing Basic/Advanced Telephone Communication, students will be able to:

1. Begin and end telephone calls.
  - Answer the telephone, greet acquaintances, give and inquire about identity, exchange contact details, direct calls and put calls on hold, refer to the subject of calls, ask for repetition and clarification, rephrase information, and close politely
2. Deal with taking and leaving messages.
  - Ask and offer to leave a message, leave a message, pass on a request, promise to pass on a message, report a message/conversation, express opinions about a message/conversation, and return a call
3. Make arrangements.
  - Volunteer to take action, request follow-up action, describe follow-up action, arrange future contact, discuss availability, suggest dates and times for meetings, make/finalize/change arrangements, describe responsibilities, check for mutual understanding, and request confirmation
4. Emphasize and reinforce ideas and feelings to get the message across.
  - Check that assumptions, express surprise and disbelief, react neutrally, react to good and bad news, express degrees of agreement and disagreement, express support, question opinions and decisions, and make and invite suggestions and recommendations
5. Handle the challenges of calling new contacts, taking part in conference calls, and maintaining longer calls.
  - Make formal introductions, describe the purpose of a call, outline a call agenda, enter discussions, and make and deal with interruptions.
6. Prepare for calls, overcome language barriers, and follow-up calls in writing.

Informal Assessment

The instructor will informally assess your progress throughout the duration of the course to ensure that you are meeting the course objectives. Additionally, the instructor will provide feedback regarding your performance and progress on any oral or written components completed during the course.
